Notes for CHARLES GILKERSON:

An illustrated history of Walla Walla County, state of Washington, W. H. Lever, 1901, page 429 CHARLES GILKERSON, a farmer residing seven miles east of Walla Walla, is a native of this county, born in 1864. He received a public-school education, and, having been raised on a farm, naturally turned to that occupation when he went into business for himself. He spent about four and a half years in Whitman county, engaged in tilling the soil, then returned to his home county and purchased a two-hundred-and-forty-acre farm, all wheat land, on which he has ever since resided. He is an enterprising man, and ranks among the prosperous and well-to-do farmers of his part of the county. He was married in Walla Walla county in 1898, to Miss Catherine Tracy, a member of one of the oldest pioneer families of the Inland Empire. Her father was an Indian war veteran of note. Mr. and Mrs. Gilkerson are parents of one son, Eddie.

She was born Feb 1869 in Washington Territory, and died 07 Mar 1953 in Walla Walla, WA<sup>101</sup>.

Notes for HARRY GILKERSON:

An illustrated history of Walla Walla County, state of Washington, page 427

HARRY GILKERSON, a farmer residing about seven miles east of Walla Walla, was born in this county in 1866. He received such education as was to be had in the public schools of the neighborhood, then went to the Big Bend country, where for four years he was engaged in farming. At the end of that period, he came to the section in which we now find him, and purchased one hundred and thirty acres of land, twenty acres of which are now under cultivation, the remainder being grazing and timber land. He has a fine home nicely located and supplied with all the improvements necessary for comfort. For the last six years, he has been agent at the Dudley warehouse fo the Pacific Coast Elevator Company, handling about seventy thousand sacks of grain per annum. He is a young man of energy, progressiveness and force, and possesses moral good qualities which win for him the respect and confidence of the community in which he lives. He belongs to the local camp, Modern Woodmen of America. In February, 1890, in Walla Walla county, he married Malina J. Rohn, and they have had three children, two of whom are now living, Freddie and Jessie May. The deceased child was named Harry Lewis.;

Final Rites are held for Mrs. C.L. Parris Tuesday

Funeral services for Mary Elizabeth Parris, Walla Walla pioneer, who died at her home Saturday, were held Tuesday afternoon from a local chapel. Pallbearers were three sons, Charles L Parris Jr., Lewis A Parris, and T.O. Parris, a brother, William Huson, Sumner, Harley Hoagland and Joseph Biersner. Jerry Davenport was the soloist, accompanied at the organ by Mrs. R.E. Gleason. The Rev. Charles Snowden officiated and interment was in the family plot of MT View cemetery.

Mrs Parris came to Walla Walla with her parents in 1866. March 26, 1878, she married Charles L. Parris, who until his death in 1925, was the last survivor of a train of 42 covered wagons that arrived here in the spring of 1859. Seven buildings composed the city when the wagon train arrived here.

For 15 years, Mr. and Mrs. Parris operated the French restaurant, located next to the Darcres hotel, then known as the Stine house. They were both talented musicians.

Lewis Parris Is Found Dead

Lewis (Buzz) Parris, 57, was found dead, a suicide, about 11 a.m. Saturday in his parked auto, less than a mile from his home on Whitman drive, route 2.

A passing motorist discovered the long-time Walla Walla resident and notified officers.

Coroner Leonard DeWitt said death apparently was due to carbon monoxide poisoning. A hose was attached to the rear of the auto releasing the gas into the interior.

DeWitt said Parris left a note but the coroner did not reveal its contents. When found parked near the Martin airport, Parris had been dead for several hours, officers said.

Born October 15, 1893 in Walla Walla, Parris attended Baker school and later was a student at St. Martin's college near Olympia for three years, studying business and music.

A sports-minded man. Parris was well-known around Walla Walla as a baseball pitcher in the Twilight league.

Survivors include his widow, Ella Parris; two brothers, Charlie Parris and Thomas (Toots) Parris, both Walla Walla, and two sisters. Mrs. Alvin (Nena) Benedict and Mrs. Frank (Ruby) Ray, both Walla Walla.

The funeral will be at 3:30 p.m. Tuesday at a local mortuary, with interment in the family plot at Mt. View cemetery. He was a member of the lathers union.

Sailor S Parris – Among those upon whose shoulders falls the mantle from the veteran pioneers as they go hence to that bourne from whence no traveler returns, stands prominently this gentleman, whose brain and brawn have wrought faithfully and effectually in the arena of Umatilla's development. The prosperity that has attended his efforts and the undisturbed confidence of his fellows that he enjoys are but the proper reward of the integrity and faithfulness that have unremittingly caused his adherence to the path of duty and industry. His parents, Alfred and Felinda (Sickler) Parris, were natives of Pennsylvania, but removed to this country in 1859. Sailor S Was born on September 22, 1860, at Mill Creek, Walla Walla county, Washington, being one of the first male white children born in this part of the country, and there gathered what education was possible from the common schools of that early day. When nineteen years of age he came to this county and took a homestead where he now lives, nine miles northwest from Athena, and to the cultivation and improvement of this, together with as much more that he has added by purchase, he has devoted himself with assiduity and energy ever since. His principal crop is wheat, but he also gives some attention to stock raising, handling both horses and cattle. He has erected upon his estate a large and comfortable residence, other necessary improvements and planted a fine orchard, which manifest good taste and judgement. In the year 1879, in April, he was married to Miss Hulda A Cox, daughter of Samuel W and Syntha (Blalock)Cox, and to them have been born the following children: Ura M., Wesley, Emery, Sailor S., Jr, and one deceased. Mrs Parris is a native of North Carolina. Mr Parris is active in politics and local affairs, especially in school matters, where his ability is appreciated, for his neighbors have kept him constantly in the director's office since his advent into the county. In church relations they are connected with the Free Methodist and in this position Mr. Parris is quite active, relegating to their proper places the desire of gain of worldly goods and aspirations fro worldly fame. The untarnished reputation, noble Christian life and exemplary conduct of our subject have won for him that which true merit and intrinsic worth w3ill sooner or later bring, namely, the confidence and respect and love of his associates and acquaintances.

27. ADELAIDE<sup>3</sup> KYGER (ADELIN M.<sup>2</sup> SICKLER, MADISON JAMES<sup>1</sup>) was born 17 Mar 1881 in Walla Walla, WA, and died 06 Feb 1966 in Walla Walla, WA<sup>193</sup>. She married GEORGE RENO MALCOLM, son of JAMES MALCOLM. He was born 15 Nov 1877 in Canada, and died 29 Jan 1967 in Walla Walla, Walla Walla, Washington<sup>194,195</sup>.

Notes for ADELAIDE KYGER:

Walla Walla Union Bulletin (Walla Walla, Washington) > 1966 > February > 7, page 5

Mrs. George Malcolm Dies at 84

Mrs. Adelaide M. (George) Malcolm, who was born in Walla Walla in 1881 and was a well-known life-time resident, died Sunday at a local hospital at age 84.

The Malcolms had observed their 63rd wedding anniversary quietly at their home, 140 Sheridan Road, just a week ago.

Mrs. Malcolm was born March 17, 1881, in Walla Walla to Daniel and Addie Kyger. She attended and graduated at St. Paul's Episcopal School. She married George R. Malcolm in Walla Walla on Jan. 31, 1903.

Mrs. Malcolm was a member of the Frist Presbyterian Church, 60-year plus member of Alki chapter 25, Order Eastern Star; Henry W. Lawton Auxilliary of Spanish American War veterans, and a charter member of Daughters of the Pioneers.

She is survived by the husband; a daughter Mrs. Sibyl Nelson, and a son, Reeves K. Malcolm, both of Walla Walla. She is also survived by a sister, Mrs. Lona West, and two grandchildren, Patricia and Michael Macolm, Walla Walla.

Funeral services will be at 2 p.m. Wednesday, at the Marshall (Herring) chapel, with Raymond Garvey of the Fist Presbyterian Church officiating. Concluding services and interment will follow in the Masonic Cemetery. Ritualistic services will be conducted by the officers of Akli Cahpter, O.E.S.

Former Sheboygan Man Makes Headline On Western Coast

A name well-known to many of Sheboygan's old-timers made the headlines in the state of Washington recently when Ernst Bechly retired after 47 years as the Lewis County, Washington, engineer.

Ernst C. Bechly was born in Sheboygan on July 24, 1872, a son of this city's pioneer businessmen. His grandfather, Friederich Bechly, had brought his family to America in the late 1840's, and shortly after arriving in New York, the family made the trek to a little village on the shores of Lake Michigan in the new state of Wisconsin.

Grandfather Bechly established himself as a utler, a maker of knives, and soon became known as the "Tenacresmith" since he owned 10 acres of land and was a smith.

Ernst Bechly's father, Charles, didn't follow the trade of his fathers, and operated a cigar store on the corner of Eighth street and Pennsylvania avenue instead of making cutlery. Anson W. Higby, 1508 Indiana avenue, who brought the above story to the attention of the Sheboygan Press, said he remembers well the huge cigar store Indian that used to stand glaring at all passers-by in front of the Charles Bechly Cigar Store prior to the turn of the century.

The family left Sheboygan in 1891 because of the senior Bechly's health, and traveled by immigrant train through Canada to the state of Washington. They settled in Chehalis, Washington, where the family still lives.

Young Ernst Bechly was 19 years of age when the family moved to the West, and he went to work in a furniture company there for 75 cents per day. In 1903 he accepted a position with the county surveyor's office and he remained with the engineering department of Lewis county until his recent retirement.

In the history of the Bechly family, as related by Ernst Bechly to the Chehalis Advocate, Chahalis, Washington, the origin of the family name is established as being French. Mr. Higby stated that when the Bechly's lived in Sheboygan everyone thought it was a German name. The family had come to America from Uckermark, Germany, but according to the family history, the Bechly family originally lived in Ursebach, Switzerland, on the French border. At that time the name was spelled the same as it is today. It was in 169? that the Bechly clan moved to Germany due to a religious upheaval in their Swiss village.

S. C. Weathermon

Stephen Casswell Weathermon, 89, of 728 S. Wilbur, died Sunday after a short illness in a local hospital.

Weathermon was born March 28, 1880 in Nodaway County, Mo. and came to Walla Walla at the age of nine. He grew up on the family farm near Umapine and farmed there until he retired seven years ago. Weathermon married Josephine Hodgen Nov. 13, 1904 in Walla Walla.

Surviving Weathmon are his wife, at the home; a daughter Mrs. George L. (Bernadine) Converse of Walla Walla; two sisters, Mrs. Roxy Merrick of California and Mrs. Catherine Hoon of Umapine; and two brothers, Charles and Oscar Weathermon, both of Walla Walla. He is also survived by numerous nieces and nephews.

Services will be 2 p.m. Wednesday in the Marshall-Herring Chapel with the Rev. Howard Baker of the First Church of God officiating. Concluding services and vault interment will follow at Mt. View Cemetery.
