ENOCH AND ALMEDA DEMARIS

In September, 1749, PETER (TAMERUS) DEMARIS, a Huguenot, and native of the Palatinate arrived in the Colonies, settling in Deerefield, New Jersey. He married ANNA FALLON and they had five sons, CHRISTIAN JOHN being the ancestor of the Oregon Demaris families.

ENOCH CHARLES DEMARIS, born in 1842, in Ohio, was in several battles of the Civil War, being invalided home in 1862. April 3, 1863, he married ALMEDA FRANCES ROBERTS of David County, Iowa.

The DEMARIS wagon train was formed in Iowa and started west in April, 1863, arriving in Walla Walla in September. The wagon train consisted of 63 wagons and over 80 people, and livestock. They encountered no Indian trouble but passed graves and burned wagons from an earlier train.

ENOCH and ALMEDA had four children, JOHN HENRY, born February 28, 1864, in Walla Walla, SARAH, born in 1866, and IRENE CASCADE, born in 1868 at Milton-Freewater. ROBERT was born in 1876 in Iowa where ALMEDA was visiting her parents. When ROBERT was three months old she returned to California, traveling by train to Salt Lake City and by stage coach to Alturas, California. They traveled to Central Oregon with several other families.

JOHN HENRY DEMARIS married CYNTHIA JANE O'KELLEY October 3, 1883. they had nine children. JOHN died in 1917.

SARAH DEMARIS married JEFF O'KELLEY October 3, 1883. they had two children. SARAH died in 1888.

IRENE DEMARIS married (1) FRANK HEREFORD in 1887, they had one child; (2) JAMES E. FULLER in 1902; (3) LOYD YANCEY in 1935. IRENE died in 1968.

ROBERT married MARY H. BAKER, June 4, 1913. The had one child. ROBERT died in April, 1963. MARY died in February 1965.

ALMEDA married CLINTON ORRICK in 1881 and they lived in the Mitchell area for several years. About 1910 they moved to a small holding on Mill Creek. CLINTON died in 1916. ALMEDA lived on the Mill Creek property for several years, then sold it and lived in Prineville until 1930 when she became ill and moved to IRENE's home on Mill Creek, where she died in 1934.

Notes for CHARLES JEFFERSON O'KELLEY:

http://www.geocities.com/possumlover3/GENEALOGY/okelley_charles_jefferson.html

CHARLES JEFFERSON AND LYDIA ELLIOTT O'KELLEY

CHARLES JEFFERSON O'KELLEY arrived in Crook County with his famiy, the JOSEPH BELL O'KELLEY's in 1880; settling on Mill Creek.

JOSEPH's father, NIMROD O'KELLEY, had come from Ireland in time to be mustered into General Jackson's army of Tennessee.

This family had traveled the Old Oregon Trail from Missouri in 1845 and taken one of the early land claims in Benton County near Corvallis.

In Central Oregon they farmed and worked at sawmilling. Five years later, 1885; LYDIA CAROLINE ELLIOTT, along with her family, the JOHN D. ELLIOTTs, came to Crook County.

Her family also had traveled the Oregon Trail and settled at Rickreall, in Polk County, where Lydia was born on the farm of Colonel James Nesmith, U. S. Senator from Oregon during the civil war.

The Elliotts settled on McKay Creek operating a saw mill, then onto Summit Prairie and Upper Ochoco, where LYDIA met her future husband, "JEFF" O'KELLEY, then a young widower with two small children; THOMAS and MABLE.

They were married at the Jake Stroud Ranch, in the Ochoco Valley in 1892, and to this union were born; one daughter and five sons, making eight O'Kelley children in all.

JEFF excelled at first aid and nursing the sick and traveled many miles when needed. In October, 1907, he himself; became ill and passed away at his ranch near where the Marks Creek - Mitchell state highway joins the Old Ochoco highway. Shortly after his death, LYDIA and her children moved into Prineville, her family grew up on the west end of First Street.

Three of the boy's: THOMAS, FRANK and CHARLES, served in World War One. THOMAS and CHARLES lost their lives as soldiers. FRANK came home to Prineville to marry, where he worked and retired from the Prineville Railroad. Son, JOHN O'KELLEY, kept his home in Prineville, worked and retired from road construction. The youngest son, MARIAN, married and settled in Portland and worked in trucking on the Portland Docks. Daughter MABLE, married ROBERT ZEVELY, Post Master for many years in Prineville. Daughter, JOSEPHINE, married a U.S. Forest Service Ranger, LEE BLEVINS, and lived at the Ochoco Ranger Station for many years. At this date, 1980, only MABLE and JOSEPHINE are living.

In 1951, LYDIA became that year's Crook County Pioneer Queen. She lived in her little white cottage, behind her son, JOHN's home on East First Street almost till the time of her death in 1967. (CHARLES JEFFERSON, born 1863, died 1907. LYDIA ELLIOTT, born 1872, died 1967.)

Pierce County, Washington Obituaries

Edith Demaris Huson (Norgaard)

Edith Huson was born July 7, 1901, in Austin, MN and died July 5, 1997, in Tacoma. Her family moved to Tacoma in 1904. In 1911 they homesteaded on McNeil Island. There was no high school on the Island, so she commuted by boat to Lincoln High School in Tacoma when she was 14. In 1917 she went to work for Atty. Homer T. Bone and worked for him and his associates for many years. She married Warren (Ted) Demaris in 1926. In 1933 she went to work for the IRS and retired in 1955 after 22 years. She and Ted moved to Santa Barbara, CA, after retiring where they lived several years before moving back to Tacoma. Ted died in 1963. In 1978 she married Harry Huson who died in 1992. She made many friends through the years and was loved by all. We will remember her marvelous sense of humor, her generosity and her loving ways. She will be greatly missed by her family and friends, but our warm and happy memories of her will linger forever. She is survived by her sister, Mae Johnson, Bellevue; nephew, Duane Johnson (Bonnie); nieces, Diane Rollf (Bill) and Jean Norman (Allen) and their families; stepson, Don Huson (Randy); stepdaughters, Anne Bock and Deena Huson and their families. She was preceded in death by her parents, Chris and Anne Norgaard; sisters, Helen Ramsay, Dena DeWaide, Lillian Larson and brothers, Homer and Robert Norgaard; nephew, Dick Larson and stepson, David Huson. With a goodbye kiss and a wave of the hand she was gone to an unknown land. And those of us here who grieve, I say, she has not gone, she is just away. Remembrances may be made to charities of your choice. Funeral services will be held Wed., July 9, 1997, at 11 a.m. in the Evergreen Chapel on the grounds of New Tacoma Cemetery. Arrangements by Tacoma Funeral Home and Cemeteries. 564-1311.
